

“My Minigolf”

Rules:

The rules of “My Minigolf” are not different from the traditional minigolf. The only difference is that “My Minigolf” can be played in any floor and has no boundaries. The challenge changes with the type of chosen floor, you only need to decide where it will be the starting point of each course.

Points: The winner will be the player with the less number of shots in the end of the circuit. Each shot counts for the maximum number of 6 attempts. If by the 6th attempt you do not manage to introduce the ball into the hole, you must point 7 shots and move on to the next obstacle.

“Towers”
This course has 4 walls around the hole, turning your objective more difficult. To introduce the ball into the hole you will have to pass between the walls.

“Ridge”
The hole is on the highest point of the ridge, to hit it you have to play with the right strength. Otherwise, the ball will pass to the other side and you will have to keep on trying.

“Straight”
For a first exercise begin with a simple hole, there are 4 for each circuit. This simple hole is also used ending courses “Bridge”, “Looping” and “Wave”.

“Curl”
The Curl climbs in spiral to the hole, only with the right strength you will manage to reach the hole on the top.

“Waves”
Try to join two waves and do a giant one. Catch the wave and reach the hole at the end.

“Volcano”
Hit the ball right and make it climb the hill and rest in the crater of the volcano.

“Maze”
Here only the central passage will get you to the hole, if you hit the side passages the ball will come back to you and you will need to try again.

“Bridge”
To reach the hole you will must cross the “Bridge” first.

“Looping”
A precise shot, it is what you need to make the ball go through the looping and head for the hole after the obstacle.
